ASSIGNMENT-13.

Why is accounting quality important. because it.

Accounting quality important because it.

ensures the accuracy, xeliability, and transparoncy of a company's financial datements. Hore are long reasons why it.

Matters:

1. Investor Trust: High - quality accounting builds confidence among investors by providing a true and fair view of the company's financial health. This helps them make informed decisions about investing in the company.

2. becision-making: Both internal managemen and extornal stalceholders rely on accurate financial data to make. It rategic derisions. High accounting quality leads to better resource allocation, performance evaluation, and.

long-texm planning.

3. compliance: Grood accounting practices ensure adherence to suggestiony. requirements and standards like CAAP or IFRS, avoiding legal issues and fines.

4. Risk management: quality accounting helps in identifying and managing. fir ancial sisks. It enables accurate. stracking of each flow, debt levels, and other financial obligations, reducing the risk of financial mis management.

- 5. fraud prevention: High -quality accounting reduces the chances of financial Manipulation or fraud, preterting the company from deardals that could haven its reputation and lead to financial.
- 6. Long-town dustainability: companies with high audusting standards tood to. perform better in the long run, as they can plan for Sustainable growth based on reliable financial information.

I'm someones and progner assigning was to to the moon with aller ecolic torotton to excess line You was sended and you will one publishments led it was printed shores the course the price per direct sith, of whompropers scorned line botch sit work about the south

money drawterni way to sale